

Purpose	This spreadsheet provides information about water and sewerage company sewage sludge production sites (known as wastewater treatment works (WWTWs) and sludge treatment centres (STCs)). It is provided in line with guidelines published by Ofwat on its website. Its purpose is to facilitate conversations between companies and third parties to explore market opportunities. It does not include all information that may be defined within a contract. Companies are required to provide data under the columns marked mandatory. Any additional information can be provided on a voluntary basis.
Water and Sewerage Company name Financial Year the data relates to Date the spreadsheet was published Contact details for anyone wanting to discuss commercial opportunities arising from this information Brief description of geographical boundary of data included here	Southern Water 2017-18 Jul-18 Katy Mears (Senior Commercial Business Manager) Southern Water, Southern House, Yeoman Road, Worthing, West Sussex BN13 3NX. Telephone: 01903 272085. Email: katy.mears@southernwater.co.uk Southern Water provides wastewater treatment in Hampshire, Isle of Wight, East Sussex, West Sussex, Kent and East Wiltshire as shown in the map on the right.
Brief description of level of data assurance	This data has been assured internally through several independent processes.
Summary of significant changes since the most recently published version of the information and this version	Location details changed to longitude and latitude. Sludge production volumes and treatmet volumes updated.

The water and sewerage company areas in England and Wales

